THE DAILY PRESS is to be had regularly at Church's Post-office stand.

It is estimated that over five thousand per sons attended the pic-nic of the St. Patrick's R. C. B. Society, yesterday.

WE ARE informed that the Firemen's Ball, at Odd Fellows' Hall, Newport, last evening, was a brilliant affair. THERE will be a pic-nic party up Licking, o-morrow, of the Bethel Sabbath School. The Belvidere, a new pleasure boat, has been engaged for the occasion.

H. H. Shultz, Esq., Assistant City Auditor, has been confined to his room for several days past, with a severe attack of inflammatory

THE bridge over the canal, at Elm street, is in a very advanced state of dilapidation. When will this old wooden structure give way to one of a more substantial character?

THE City Council is awakening to the importance of establishing a work-house. The subject was referred to by several members last Wodnesday evening.

At a meeting of the County and City Board of Equalization, yesterday, the assessments in Columbia Township were increased $19,700. The assessments in the Twelfth Ward (city) were increased $865,40.

John Washington, for stealing a pockethandkerchief from a gentleman named Smith, at the William Tell Saloon, on Fifth street, was sent to the County Jail for three months, by the Police Judge, yesterday.

EXTENSIVE preparations are being made by the members of the First Universalist Church for a grand pie-nic, down the river, to-morrow. A happy time may be expected by all who attend.

It will be remembered that Tosso's new an ecdote, with violin accompaniments, entitled 'Music and Physic," will be presented for the first time, at Smith & Nixon's Hall, this evening. The friends of Tosso, and admirers of Miss Sophie Werner, will all be there.

ROBBING AN OFFICIAL .-- Some miscreant entered the office of the Clerk of the Police Court last Wednesday, and stole a valuable gold pen, the property of Mr. Royse. The rascal was liberal enough to leave the handle, more to prevent detection than on account of his honesty.

A now occurred in a Coffee-house on the corner of Wood and Front streets, night before last, in which a man, named George Shafer, was severely wounded by a lame man, named Tangerman, who struck him in the face with a half-pint tumbler. Tangerman was fined $20 and costs in the Police Court yesterday, and sentenced to five days imprisonment, on bread lum had their twenty-sixth Anniversary Reunion with the Trustees and Managers, yesterday afternoon, and it was a noteworthy oceasion. The exercises took place under the tent of the Y. M. C. Union, which is pitched on the Asylum lot.

Dr. Scott. Rev. Kingsley Goddard, who has Report of the Trustees; also, the Report of the Treasurer, who disburses the fund which comes into the bands of the Lady Managers; also, the Report of the Sabbath School-all of which exhibit the various departments of the Asylum to be in a healthy and prosperous condition.

The death of two of the active Managers, during the past year, was announced. Friend Charlotte Morgan, wife of Ephraim Morgan, one of the most effective and useful of this noble band of ladies, was taken from their happy fellowship in good works, in October last.

Mrs. Mitchell, who performed a liberal share of the trusts and duties of these orphan enres, has also been disconnected by death from the narrowing circle of the pioneer managers. The venerable Mrs. Burnet still takes part and lot in the Board, while the maternal and superintending care of Mrs. Clarissa H. Daviess, widow of the former Mayor of this city, the public-spirited Sam'l W. Daviess, is still continued as it commenced, a quarter of a century ago, as President of the Asylum-the noble charity.

The assiduous, unobtrusive, but effective friend, the pioneer trustee of the Orphan Asylum, William Crossman, is still a practical participator in the financial management. Mrs. Cloon, Mrs. Bates, Mrs. Stille, and a number of constant devotees still render service, so that with the experience and tact of the matron, Miss Carter, the close of the year give assurance that the Orphans are being maintained, worthy the donations of its

Hon. Stanley Matthews, in an eloquent address of forty minutes, made a fervent appeal to the audience, as citizens and Christians, to be faithful trustees of the property committed to the charge of each, so that when the accounts of stewardship are to be rendered, the word "disallowed" will not be entered on the vouchers offered of how talents had been spent, but that each one having conquered self, and lived for others in God's name, would be accepted, inasmuch as these humble ones, the orphans had been cared for. He made a pungent, satirical comment upon what he called the lack of generosity of landholders in this neighborhood, in not presenting free of cost to this charity a few acres of ground on which to build a new home out of the city for these little ones.

It is known that the "Brown" lot, on Mt. Auburn, has been purchased at a cost of $20,000, and before long the managers will be operating the asylum in a new building.

Their remaining in the present edifice is at he courtesy of the City Council, who have bought the square for a Park.

Quite an interesting sight was that of the well-cared-for orphans themselves, of various sizes, from babies in arms to lads and misses. Among them are some handsome children Here is a child of Mahone, recently murdered by Clawson. The culture of the scholars of his school is creditable to nurses and teachers. Their voices are trained to praise in song, by aid of Prof. Mason; their glad hearts and bright eyes bound and beam with gratitude, and altogether, their comforts and delights, their mora and social improvements are gradually removing the lines of sorrow on the lineaments of their youthful faces, so distinguishing for sadness when they first enter the Asylum. The audience heard their singing with sympathy and attention, and aided the fund for their support, by purchasing at the refreshment and flower stands, both during the afternoon and evening. At nights, crowds attended at the tent, heard the children sing, and by the music of Menter's Band, promenaded the grass plats and

Incendiaries About.

THE slorm of fire about eight o'clock, las evening, was occasioned by the burning of a earpenter shop, occupied by Messrs. Jones & Solar, situated on the south side of Front street, between Lawrence and Pike, together with its entire contents. Loss, probably $2,500; also, a blacksmith and wagon makers' shop, adjoining, occupied by Mr. Johnson, whose loss is, perhaps, $1,000. The coal yard of Mr. Dodsworth was also on fire, and some three or four hundred bushels of coal consumed, together with the fence and a portion of the office. Mr. Dodsworth's loss is slight, compared to that of the others. The fire originated in the carpenter shop by means unknown. The buildings were all frame, and made quite a brilliant light. ANOTHER.-At one o'clock, this morning, the steam saw mill belonging to Mr. Richard Ashcraft, 223 East Front street, above Butler, was discovered to be on fire. The firemen were quickly on hand, but owing to the large amount of combustible material, all efforts to save the building proved fruitless. The mill, with the entire contents, was burned to the ground. The loss will probably reach $15,000, on which we understand there is no insurance. There can be no doubt that this, as well as the previous fire, was the work of incendiaries.

As inquest was held by Coroner Cary yesterday, over the body of a man, name unknown, found floating in the Ohio River, opposite the dry dock, in the Seventeenth Ward. Deceased was supposed to be a German, about five feet eight inches high; had on a tight body alpaca coat, blue cloth pants, doublebreasted velvet vest, and kip boots. The body was in an advanced state of decomposition, so much so as to render recognition impossible. A verdict of death, by means unknown, was rendered.

WE were shown, yesterday, a new species of stone, recently discovered by Mr. A. R. Smith, of this city, which has been pronounced by competent judges to be far superior to any other quality ever introduced in this city for street crossings and curbs. The presiding officer read the Financial and neck. He was picked up in a senseless condition, and carried to the No. Ten's Engine House, on the corner of Third and Lawrence streets, and Drs. Malone and Foster sent for. No bones were found broken, and the physicians stated that it would be impossible to ascertain the extent of his injuries until a resction took place. He bled profusely at the month, nostrils and ears, and appeared to suffer greatly. About 12 o'clock he was conveyed on a litter to the No. Four's House, on Sycamore street, and although not a member of the Fire Department, was properly cared for by the Chief Engineer and members of the various companies.

DELAND & CO.'S CLEARING OUT SALE,-The regular recurrence of those "Clearing out Sales," which have characterized the House of Deland, Gossage & Cuyler, since its establishnent in our city, is looked upon with great favor by the thousands who patronize that extensive emporium. One of those "Sales," as will be seen by an advertisement in another column, has now commenced; we, therefore, invite public attention to the fact. We may observe that the firm fully appreciate the importence of advertising, as one of the best means of building up an extensive business; for they advertise extensively. See advertise-

THE FOLLOWING method of preparing green cucumbers, so as to render them a healthful diet, was related to us yesterday by a gentleman who says he speaks from experience: Soak the cucumbers in cold water over night; then pare and cut in thin slices; place them in a deep.plate or dish; sprinkle a little salt and pepper over them; then alice a few onions over the top, after which pour on half pint of good cider vinegar. After this is done throw plate, encumbers, enions and all out of the window. A good idea, and no mistake.

A MAN named Sefrim Miller was arrested by officers Rickets and Riggs, yesterday, upon information received from Portsmouth, Ohio, by telegraph, charging him with larceny at that place. He was confined in the Hammondstreet Station-house to await the arrival of proper officers from Portsmouth. HOUSEKEEPERS desirous of replenishing their stock of fruit jars, will find a superior article at Chas. S. Tallmadge's, 245 Vine street. See his advertisement, in another column. A GRAND WALTE, "Dreams on the Ocean," by Gungle, has been introduced at that popular place to spend an hour, the Casino, opposite Pike's Opera House. GEO. SEITER will have a hearing, before Judge Lowe, this murning, upon a charge of easting dirt in the streets. M. MEREDITH, of Adams' Express Company will please accept our thanks for late Inlianapolis papers.

AMUSEMENTS.

WOOD'S THEATER-The Star Company were greated last evening with a large and fashionable audience, to witness the performance of "School for Scandal." Every character was well sustained. To-night will be presented Goldsmith's fine comedy in five acts, entitled "She Stoops to Conquer."

SMITH & NIXON'S HALL.—The friends of that hild of genius, Misa Sophie Werner, will, we have o doubt, fill Smith & Nixon's Hall, to-night. It will be remembered that the proceeds of this Concert are to be appropriated toward finishing her musical eduration, and we hope to have the gratification of seeing the talent she already possesses, appreciated and encouraged by our citizens. A glance at the programme will be a sufficient guarantee of a rich treat.

WESTERN MUSEUM.-New attractions are daily being added to this establishment. The liberality of the present proprietor explains the reason why.

Popular Rising in Parma. War Excitement High in Germany.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE, ETC.

New York, June 0.—The Royal Mail Steam-ship, Africa, arrived here this morning with dates from Liverpool to the 28th uit. Her advices are not so late as those fur-mished by the Arago at St. Johns, but she brings interesting details of the news, and her commercial intelligence is important. There was nothing important from the seat of war, beyond the further details of the battle of Montebello. The Austrians profess satisfaction at the result of the battle. Gen. Guyali reports that his less was 290 killed, 718 wounded, and 283 missing. He says the French force numbered 40,000, but they abstained from all pursuit. Count Stadion, commander of the Austrian forces, was wounded during the battle. Some of the French authorities still assert that there was not much over 4,000 French engaged in the battle. Other estimates place the number at 12,000.

There were popular risings in some parts of Parma, in favor of the Sardinian cause.

A vague rumor had obtained circulation via Vienna, that Gortschakoff, the Russian Foreign Minister, had resigned because the Empe eror refused to carry out his engagements with France. In England, the Derby ministry had issued a strong appeal to its Parliamentary sup-porters, for their early attendance, to meet the opposition movement. The Empress Eugenie had received and addressed the members of the great bodies of State. She said she placed full dependence in leave, but refused.

TURIN, May 27 .- The Austrian steamers are cruising about in Lake Maggiore, threatening the towns and villages on the banks. The inhabitants are in arms and offer resistance to the menaces of the enemy. The steamer Radetaky appeared before the town of Can-nobio, and fired a few shots without effect. The discharges from the small arms of the National Guard soon compelled her to bear away again. A private message announces that General Garibaldi occupies a strong position near Vares.

Yesterday afternoon Count De Salmour de-parted for Naples.

TURIN, May 28.—At Langhierano in the Duchy of Paima, the people have risen and pronounced for the King of Sardinia.
Gen. Ribotte, at the head of the Tuscan troops, military engineers and gen-d'armes en-tered Parma amid the plaudits of the people, who declared for the King of Sardinia and Italian independence. The Parmesen troops

Slaveholder's Convention. BALTIMORE, June 9 .- The Maryland Conven

tion to consider the question as to the best means of regulating the free negro population, met again this morning. The hall was crowded, and much interest was manifested in the proceedings. Hon. James Alfred Pearce, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, submitted the report and resolutions of the majority. majority.
Mr. F. W. Jacobs, of Worcester County, pre sented the views of a portion of the minority, being a written address, going over the whole ground, and detailing the grievances of the slaveholder of Maryland, and the pernicious influence of free negroism on the population generally.

He advocated the prohibition of emancipa-tion and passage of laws for the gradual ex-tinction of free negroes. He alluded to the tendency in the Northern and Western States to legislate against free negroes. He also al-luded to the interferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the North in the matter, and was very severe on the New York Chris-tian Advocate touching its strictures on the Convention held at Cambridge, and its attempts to threaten with ecclesiastical cowhide, the Methodists of Maryland, if they countenance the present movement.

He avowed himself a Methodist, but repudiated in Strong language any attempt at ex-clesiastical interference with the domestic in stitutions of the State. The Convention adopted the following resolutions, reported by the majority of the Committee, and adjourned sine die-Resolved-That this Convention considers any measure for the general removal of free blacks from the State of Maryland impolitic. inexpedient, and uncalled for by any public exigency which could justify it. Resolved.—That the free negro population efficient laws, to the end that it may be orderly industrious and productive.

Resolved-That for the purpose of dimin ishing, as far as possible, the evils which proceed from an excessive and increasing class of negroes, the policy of the State, declared in 1831, should be re-affirmed, and such amend-ments be made to the act of that year, as will give to it active force, such as will either pro-hibit emancipation altogether or compel the prompt removal from the State of those emnancipated; and that the Legislature should be asked to review and amend the laws relating to free negroes and to emancipation, so as to remedy all the defects of a system which time and experience have disclosed. Resolved—That a committee be appointed to submit the views of this Convention, and to ask appropriate legislation by the General Assem-
